PRESS RELEASE

#10-036B

POLICE IDENTIFY MURDER/SUICIDE SUSPECT

HOLLISTER, CALIFORNIA – September 13, 2010 – The man suspected of shooting two women before shooting himself on Diablo Drive on July 11, 2010 has been identified as Jose Gerardo Mandujano-Castro (51 yrs). The man had been using an assumed identity for several years and had a California driver's license with the name Enrique Rosales Alvarez.

The Hollister Police Department did not release the name of the suspect soon after the crime due to conflicting information as to his identity. Subsequent follow up investigation by Hollister Police Detectives involving the suspect's fingerprints, interviews with family members and contact with The U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement revealed the man's true identity.

J. Gerardo Mandujano-Castro

On July 11, 2010 Jose Gerardo Mandujano-Castro walked into his ex-girlfriend's apartment on the 1400 block of Diablo Drive. He shot and killed his ex-girlfriend, Dora Gutierrez (42), and then shot his girlfriend's adult daughter. Soon after, Mandujano-Castro turned the gun on himself. Both Mandujano-Castro and Gutierrez were pronounced dead at the scene. The adult daughter survived the attack, as did her five-year-old child who was present and witnessed the incident.
